DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

1. Claims 29 and 34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fiset, US 5,589,719.
2. As per claims 29 and 34, Fiset teaches a method of charging a battery using a charging apparatus (1235 +1230+1221+1220+1215, Fig. 12) capable of being connected to a communication apparatus, which is capable of performing data communication via a communication channel (card interface, 1212, Fig.12), using said communication channel to make the connection;
wherein said communication channel includes a communication line for data communication (via lines 1270, Fig.12) and a power supply line for supplying electric power (1220, Fig.12);
said apparatus comprising:
a charging circuit for applying electric power, with which it is supplied through said power supply line, to a connector of a data processing unit driven by a battery (1213, 1214, Fig.12) installed in said data processing unit, the data processing unit being formed to have said connector in order to input electric power for charging the battery. (Fiset, col. 13, lines 26-col. 14, lines 1-33)

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 29 and 34 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Fukushima, US 5,903,700.

5. As per claims 29 and 34, Fukushima teaches a method of charging a battery using a charging apparatus (Fig. 6) capable of being connected to a communication apparatus, which is capable of performing data communication via a communication channel (108, 200, Figs.1,6), using said communication channel to make the connection;

wherein said communication channel includes a communication line for data communication and a power supply line for supplying electric power (Figs. 1,6);

said apparatus comprising:

Art Unit: 2182

a charging circuit for applying electric power, with which it is supplied through said power supply line, to a connector of a data processing unit driven by a battery (210, Fig.6) installed in said data processing unit, the data processing unit being formed to have said connector in order to input electric power for charging the battery. (Fukushima, Abstract, col. 1, lines 14-41, col. 7, lines 39-col. 9, lines 1-62)
